

Policy on Accepting Nominations for BOD & President

Policy:

The Nominating Committee may identify candidates for nomination and may accept nominations from Members. A “Nominee” shall be defined as someone who has been recommended to serve on the Board of Directors, or in the office of President. A “Candidate” shall be defined as a Nominee who has been selected by the Nominating Committee to appear on the annual election ballot.

Procedures:

- No less than ninety (90) days prior to the annual business meeting, the Society shall inform the membership of a call for nominations. In accordance with the aforementioned, the call for nominations shall commence in the same calendar year as the corresponding election, and at the discretion of the BOD.
 - o The call for nominations shall explain how to submit nominations.
 - o The call for nominations shall be published:
 - In email to all members.
 - On the Society’s website.
 - On social media.
 - By any other methods deemed appropriate by the Nominating Committee.
- Any Member may submit to the Nominating Committee names of individuals they recommend to serve on the BOD, or in the office of President, up until 30 days prior to the annual business meeting.
- The opportunity to nominate an ASNM Member for BOD or President shall expire 30 days prior to the annual business meeting.
 - o There will be no nominations accepted from the floor of the annual business meeting.
- All Nominees are automatically accepted for consideration as potential Candidates, with the exception that ASNM Members may not self-nominate.
 - o Approval or rejection of Nominees shall adhere to the Policy on Selecting Candidates for BOD & President.
- This policy may be amended by a majority vote of the BOD.
